

LEVEL 1 SPEAKING EXAM PROCEDURES

Part 1 (1-2 MINUTES)

In this part, the interlocutor greets the candidates and asks one or two personal questions. For Level 1, this part IS included in the assessment. A typical conversation is shown below.

Interlocutor: Hello. My name is..... What is your full name? And can you spell your (family) name for me, please?

Candidate: (Spells (family) name)

Interlocutor: Can you show me your ID card please?

Candidate: (Shows his/her ID card/ passport with a picture of himself/herself to the camera)

Interlocutor: Thank you. Where are you from?

Candidate: (Responds)

Interlocutor: How old are you?

Candidate: (Responds)

Interlocutor: What is your department?

Candidate: (Responds)

Interlocutor: Now, you are in Karabük. Do you like the city? /What do you think of Karabük University?

Candidate: (Responds)

PART 2 (2-3 MINUTES)

In this part, the interlocutor asks the candidates a set of personal questions on some familiar topics. A typical conversation is shown below.

Interlocutor: Now, Part Two. In this part, you are going to answer some personal questions.

Each candidate is asked a set of questions. The candidate could be given some time to think on his/her ideas and then he/she should answer the questions.

Talk about your family?

- How many family members do you live with?
- Who do you spend time with most?
- What do you have in common with your parents?

Interlocutor: That is the end of the speaking exam. Thank you.

LEVEL 2 SPEAKING EXAM PROCEDURES

INTRO – WARM-UP: In this part, the interlocutor greets the candidates and asks one or two personal questions as a warm-up. This part is not assessed. A typical conversation is shown below.

Interlocutor: Hello. My name is... What is your full name? And can you spell your (family) name for me, please?

Candidate: (Spells (family) name)

Interlocutor: Can you show me your ID card please?

Candidate: (Shows his/her ID card/ passport with a picture of himself/herself to the camera)

Interlocutor: Thank you. Where are you from?

Candidate: (Responds)

PART 1 (2-3 MINUTES)

Interlocutor: In this part, the interlocutor asks the candidates a set of personal questions about them. A typical conversation is shown below.

Interlocutor: Now, Part One. In this part, you are going to answer some personal questions about yourself.

Talk about your routines.

- Do you wake up early?
- What time do you wake up?
- What do you do when you wake up?

PART 2 (2-3 MINUTES)

In this part, the interlocutor asks the candidates a set of personal questions on some topics in accordance with the book. A typical conversation is shown below.

Interlocutor: Now, Part Two. In this part, you are going to answer some personal questions.

Each candidate is asked a set of questions. The candidate could be given some time to think on his/her ideas and then he/she should answer the questions.

- Do you think drinking coffee is healthy? Why/why not?
- Do you think you drink coffee a lot? Give examples

Interlocutor: That is the end of the speaking exam. Thank you.

LEVEL 3 SPEAKING EXAM PROCEDURES

INTRO – WARM-UP: In this part, the interlocutor greets the candidates and asks one or two personal questions as a warm-up. This part is not assessed. A typical conversation is shown below.

Interlocutor: Hello. My name is..... What is your full name? And can you spell your (family) name for me, please?

Candidate: (Spells (family) name)

Interlocutor: Can you show me your ID card please?

Candidate: (Shows his/her ID card/ passport with a picture of himself/herself to the camera)

Interlocutor: Thank you. Where are you from?

Candidate: (Responds)

Interlocutor: How was your weekend?

Candidate: (Responds)

PART 1 (1-2 MINUTES)

Interlocutor: Now, Part One. In this part, you are going to answer some personal questions.

(Each candidate is asked some personal questions on some topics in accordance with the book. Choose the questions from the list randomly. The interlocutor should not show the questions on the screen in written format if the candidate cannot understand.)

- What music did you use to listen to when you were young?
- Are there any sports you don't like watching on TV? Why?
- When you're invited to some somebody's house for a meal, what would you take as a gift?

PART 2 (2-3 MINUTES)

Interlocutor: Now, Part Two. In this part, you are going to express your opinion about the statement given to you for 1-2 minutes. You'll have 1 minute to think about and organize your ideas.

(Each candidate is given a statement. The candidate is given 1 minute to think on his/her ideas and then he/she should answer the questions without any clarification/support by the interlocutor.)

Parents should never try to be friends with their children.

Interlocutor: That is the end of the speaking exam. Thank you.

LEVEL 4 SPEAKING EXAM PROCEDURES

INTRO – WARM-UP: In this part, the interlocutor greets the candidates and asks one or two personal questions as a warm-up. This part is not assessed. A typical conversation is shown below.

Interlocutor: Hello. My name is..... What is your full name? And can you spell your (family) name for me, please?

Candidate: (Spells (family) name)

Interlocutor: Can you show me your ID card please?

Candidate: (Shows his/her ID card/ passport with a picture of himself/herself to the camera)

Interlocutor: Thank you. Where are you from?

Candidate: (Responds)

Interlocutor: How was your weekend?

Candidate: (Responds)

PART 1 (1-2 MINUTES)

Interlocutor: Now, Part One. In this part, you are going to answer some personal questions.

(Each candidate is asked some personal questions on some topics in accordance with the book. Choose the questions from the list randomly. The interlocutor should not show the questions on the screen in written format if the candidate cannot understand.)

- Do you find it difficult to get up very early?
- Do you ever have problems sleeping?
- What kind of things might make it difficult for people to sleep well?
- How can these problems be solved?

PART 2 (2-3 MINUTES)

Interlocutor: Now, Part Two. In this part, you are going to express your opinion about the statement given to you for 1-2 minutes. You'll have 1 minute to think about and organize your ideas.

(Each candidate is given a statement. The candidate is given 1 minute to think on his/her ideas and then he/she should answer the questions without any clarification/support by the interlocutor.)

People today don't give enough importance on sleep but sleep impacts one's overall quality of life a lot.

Interlocutor: That is the end of the speaking exam. Thank you.